Blood Curse of the Marked

As a bonus action, you mark a creature that you can see within 30 feet of you. Until the end of your turn, whenever you hit the cursed creature with a weapon for which you have an active crimson rite, you roll an additional 1d4 when determining the extra damage from the rite.

Amplify. The next attack roll you make against the target before the end of your turn has advantage.

Crimson Rite

As a bonus action, you can activate any rite you know on a weapon you're holding. A weapon can only hold one active rite at a time. When activated, you take 1d4 necrotic damage which can't be reduced in any way.

While your rite is active, attacks made with this weapon are magical, dealing an additional 1d4 damage of the type determined by the chosen rite. The rite's effect lasts until you finish a short/long rest and other creatures cannot gain the benefit of your rite.
